HARRISON WILL NEGOTIATE.

A CHANGE IN THE ASPECT OF HIS RE-LATIONS WITH PLATE. Is a Few Days Steps will be Taken to Bring the New York Republican Ma-chine Into Line for the Party's Candidate,

Washington, July 14 .- President Harrison, on his return from Loon Lake and Saratoga, has been overrun with work. It has consisted principally in looking over the political situaon in the Western and Southwestern States. The President's friends in his Cabinet have submitted to him voluminous reports, verbal and otherwise, describing the fluctuations of the political barometer. The President is especially pleased with the news from Kansas. end the outlook in the Northwest he finds arntifying. The difficulty over the selection of a National Chairman to run his campaign ill soon he out of the way, and then the President proposes to give a good part of his time to the direction of his campaign.

The President has determined to open negotiations with ex-Sonators Thomas C. Platt and Warner Miller of New York State. The President is prepared to admit that the time has arrived for communicating with these two Republican leaders. In a few days the President will communicate with these two gentle men. It is maintained that in opening communication with Mr. Platt and Mr. Miller there is no sacrifice of dignity on his part. He is looking for the success of the Republican party, his friends say, and, for that matter, so are Mr. Platt and Mr. Miller and their friends. The difficulty has been that the President has perhaps unwillingly listened to much to enemies of Mr. Platt and Mr.

Miller.

The President was made aware two years ago that Mr. Platt doubted the advisability of his renomination. He knew that Mr. Platt favored Mr. Blaine. He was not prepared, though for the stand taken by Warner Miller. Mr. Miller called at the White Hease late in May and the President gathered from the conversation hold at that time with Mr. Miller that Mr. Miller believed that the President should be renominated. John C. New spread this report all over Washington. Mr. Miller's friends, on the other hand, say that they are fully conversant with the details of that interview with the President, and that politics was not even mendent, and that polities was not even men-tioned by either the President or Mr. Miller. Mr. New spent two dars at Minneapolis work-ing on Mr. Miller in an effort to have blin come out for the President. Mr. New told Mr. then: is is the opportunity of your life to get

This is the opportunity of your life to get equince on Platt.

Mr. Miller wouldn't listen. He had no desire toget square. He doulted the President's availability as a candidate for a second term. In this he was supported by forty-five votes out of the seventy-two from New York State. Since the Convention the President has not been particularly affable in his expressions about Mr. Platt or Mr. Miller. He disputed the right to think and act as they did. They, on the other hand, have been effish.

The announcement of the negotiations about to be opened between the White House and Mr. Platt and Mr. Miller has created an easier feeling and has done much to lay a certain spirit approaching demoralization that has rises over the trouble in selecting a National Chairman.

Gen. Michener of Indiana has sent a letter to friend in New York saying that he must not a considered a candidate for the honor of a friend in New York saying that he must not be considered a candidate for the homer of running. Parrison's campaign committee from Michener feels that his selection would provoke joniousless and political enmittees in the Hossier State. Accommanying this news came word that the Fresident was inclined to I elleve in the availability of either John C. Epooner of Wisconsin or Henry C. Payne of the same State. Mr. Payne has forcibly and emphatically refused to be considered a candidate for the place. He was an ardent Blaine man at the Minneapolis Convention. Mr. Spooner, on the other hand, was one of the fruest friends the President had on that occasion. In a speech that was notably enthusiastic and sincere he seconded Dr. Chauncey M. Depew's speech nominating the President. He lost his seat in the Senate because of his advocacy of Harrison. But, for good or evil, he has stood by Harrison. The committee meet to-morrow at the Fifth Avenue Hotel at 11 o'clock in the morning. An hour later it is expected that the New York State Republican Exceutive Committee will meet. Things were looking more harmonious for the Republican statistics.

HARMONY WITH PATTERSON IN IT The Republican County Campaign Likely to be in His Hands.

The promise of a lively meeting of the Republican County Campaign Committee in the Grand Opera House building this afternoon, it is said, is not to be fulfilled. The committee consists of ten members, the majority of whom had agreed to set aside Jacob M. Patterson as local campaign manager for the party and to put William Brookfied in control. It seems, however, that Jacob has been very husy to prevent this, and that his work of the new sub-committee is said to be thu preservation of the Eleventh district, which was practically wiped out of existence in the first plan proposed, when parts of it were to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts each true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteeuth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteenth districts and true to be given to the Thirteenth, Sixteenth, and Eighteenth districts and busy to prevent this, and that his work and Mr. Brookfield's withdrawal from the field, Mr. Brookheld's withdrawal from the field, taken in connection with the suggestion from Washington that President Harrison would like a truce declared, as he proposes to open negotiations with Messes. Platt and hiller, may result in a victory for Patterson. Mr. Brookheld, who was the choice of the committee, was averse to mixing in a squable for the chairmanship, and so last night he withdrew. The bitter opponents of Patterson in the committee tried to find another candidate but were unsuccessful, and when the committee meets at 4 o clock this afternoon it is believed that Patterson will be elected chairmans.

Denoved that l'atterson will be elected chairman.

There are four causes which worked for Patterson's success. First, the fact that he was permitted by Secretary Tracy and Senator Hiscock to use the Federal patronage mill in his own interest. The second is said to be a promise that George Wanmaker's friend and ally, Et en Demarest of the Seventeenth district, shall be made a Deputy Appraiser. Then there were the failure to concentrate the opposition and the word from Washington that I resident Harrison had dismounted from his high horse and would meet and treat with Platt and Miller.

THE REPUBLICAN CHAIRMANSHIP. It Looks as Though Either Senator Proctor or Gen. Michener Would Be Chosen. WASHINGTON, July 14 .- Politicians here still think that Gen. Michener of Washington, formerly of Indianapolis, will be chosen on Saturday as Chairman of the Republican National Committee, although a few generally well-posted men insist that Senator Procto of Vermont is the coming man. The truth of the matter is that the President doubts the wisdom of Michener's selection, and if he insists on the choice of Sonator Proctor he will bave his way. The Vermont Senator is personally very much averse to taking up the which he regards himself as unfitted. On the other hand, he seems that he is under great personal obligations to the President, as he owes his prominence in political life solely to his friendship. There has been a movement on foot during the past few days looking to the selection of Senator McMillan of Michigan, and an effort has been made to have the place thrust upon him. Indeed, it is ted. On the other hand, he feels that he is looking to the selection of senator McMillan of Michigan, and an effort has been made to have the place thrust upon him. Indeed, it is not yet known that this plan has been frustrated. The President has been very anxious that Senator McMillan should assume the task, but he has been met with a prompt refusal. The Michigan Senator would not be at all pleased if he should be chosen, because he would be compelled to decline. There are various reasons why he could not seept the place, one of them being that he has just assumed the Presidency of the ton-solidate! McMillan and Al. or car companies in Michigan, which have just poded their issues, and started out on a new hack with a capital of $8,000,000. The Senator wil he colliged hereafter to give his attention to this great business enterprise, and could not therefore, assume the responsibility of taking charge of the campaign. It looks, therefore, very much as if Proctor or Michener will be chosen, with the chances in layor of the latter.

CLEVELAND WANTS WHITNEY. But Whitney Says No. and Fr.Gov. Camp bell of Ohio is Sent For.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 14 - The despatch from New York in the evening papers saying that ex-Secretary Whitney was wavering on his decision as to whether he should accept the Chairmanship of the Pemocratic National Committee, was shown to Mr. Cleveland last night. In commenting on the despatch, Mr. Cleveland said it was very plain that Mr. Whitney's acceptance was demanded by the unanimous sentiment of the party. His mail is filled with letters from prominent men in all parts of the country, in which Mr. Whitney's selection is referred to as the thing to be desired above all other considerations. While he did not think be ought to urge Mr. Whitney to do anything which his judgment did not approve, it is difficult to understand how the ex-Secretary could withstand the pressure which was brought to bear on him to accept.

A Reception at the Manhat an Clab After the Specches in the Garden. Madison Square Garden has been selected as the place for the public notification, next Wednesday, to Grover Cleveland and Adlat E. Stevenson of their nomination as the candidates of the Democracy for President and Vice-President. This was decided on at a meeting of the local committee of one hundred Democrats, to whom the Notification Committee appointed at the Chicago Convention has delegated power to make the arrangements. The meeting was held in the Governor's Hoom at the City Hall.

William C. Whitney, on behalf of the subcommittee appointed to confer with the members of the Notification Committee, reported bers of the Notification Committee, reported that the proposition to have a public instead of a private notification of the candidates suited the Notification Committee, and he recommended that the Garden be engaged. This report was unanimously adopted.

Chairman Balcock named an Executive Committee and a Finance Committee. Mr. Whitney explained that the purpose is to have a simple ceremony, with no other speechmaking than the formal utterances of the representatives of the Notification Committee and of the candidates. This suggestion was approved. It was then decided that admission to the floor of the Garden should be free and without ticket. The matter of reserved seats and loxes was referred to the Executive Committee with lower.

The Secretary crossed the Pennsylvania terry at Cortianat street alone. He carried a grip as big as Webster's Dictionary. He rode up town on the elevated road as far as Twenty-third street, and scooted down to the North River, where the revenue cutter

It is a conservative statement to say that thirty-seven flounder lines were carried aboard the Grant.

The battered revenue cutter with steam up swished and plunged down by Liberty Island, through the Narrows, and out into the bay. This was on Saturday night.

It was too late to fish that night, but bright and early on Sunday meaning the Secretary and his friends were hangam over the rail of the Grant hunting for the succeivent flounder. Hoars on their way to the Fishing lanks massed loaded to the pitot houses, and there was no knowledge that the august Secretary, the bank President, and the Surveyor were also breaking the fourth commandment. All day the flounders were hunted. The Secretary lind good success. He tells his friends that he captured one flounder which weighed lifteen pounds before it was dressed. He got sixteen officers of less weight, and bottween every catch he winked his eye and wondered what in the world Col. Elliott Flim-Flam Shepard would say if he knew what was going on.

Mr. Caronon fished between charts, and was sufficiently courteous to the Secretary not to cerral more than eight flounders. Surveyor Lyon caught eleven.

On Sunday night the Grant was run back to town. The Secretary and before returning to Washington remarked that it was a very "sporting" occasion for him.

Smith, it was said, de-clared that a tall, thin man had met him in the square, and without a word had shot him. Smith was engaged to be married to Miss Sallie Barnes of Paterson, the granddaughter of Danforth, the millionaire locomotive builder. After the shooting it was said that Walter Camp had previously been engaged to the same lady, and he was arrested on suspicion. He proved that he was at an athlette meeting wigger of Newark. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be solemn pontifical vespers and a sermon by Bishop Haid. O'BRIEN & CLARK'S CREDITORS. Many Claims Contingent on the Success of the Suli Against the City.

POUGHREEPSIE, July 14. - The affairs of O'Brien & Clark, the squeduct contractors, came up before Judge Barnard in Chambers here to-day, upon a motion on behalf of Re-ceiver Hinckley to make the terms of an order recently granted to him more explicit. The order in question merely authorized and empowered him to pay certain liens and preferred claims, but put the burden of deciding as to whether or not they were lions or preferred claims upon him. Judge Barnard decided to not make his order mandatory, and advised the receiver not to pay out any money or to consent to the payment of any by the city until the question of liens and preferred claims had been judicially passed upon and a chance given the general creditors to be heard. There are a number of preferred claims about which there is no dispute, viz. that of the fx-hange National Bank of New York for 250,000, and the claims of one or two other New York banks for labor and supplies, which are undoubledly valid and undisputed, and which will soon be for labor and supplies, which are undoubledly valid and undisputed, and which will soon be paid.

Among the general creditors are Joseph Choate and Judge Leslie W. Russell. There are other general creditors, including Mrs. Clark, wife of one of the partners, and Messrs. Geodby & too, amounting in all to about $150.0 a, and still others whose chains, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars, are estiment upon the success of the big suit which the receiver is presenting against the city, and which is now on its way to the Court of Appeals. The sub-contractors have filed liens, amounting to $1.125,000, against all moneys due or to become due from the city of New York. The books of O'Brien & Clark, however, show that the sub-contractors are indebted to the firm to the amount of $1,500,000, to which amount they will have been overpaid in case O'Brien & Clark and the receiver fail in the big suit against the city for extra work. The sub-contractors on the other hand, insist that they were entitled to all they have received, whether the firm gets paid for the extra work or not.

The lawyers present, representing all sides, agreed to go to work upon the lines mapped out by Judge Barnard to effect an arrangement which will justify the receiver in distributing about $400,000 now held by the Comptroller of the city of New York, and which is conceded to be due the firm and its creditors, and which is irrespective of the large claims which are in suit for extra work.

FBELD.—At the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company, held this lath day of July, the following resolutions were

We have learned with profound sorrow of the death of Cyrus W Field. Mr. Field has been for twelve years a member of this Board, and brought to the performance of his duties the fidelity and ability for which he was distinguished. He did much for his country and for the peace and commerce of the world in the laying of the Atlantic cable. It was his courage, confidence, and fores ght which carried through the enterprise. After every failure he in-pired new hopes and secured the needed sup-pert, by imparting to others some of his own in-domitable faith. He was one of the most public spirited of citizens. He never gave to any cause & half-hearted support; but his enthusiasm in its advocacy was the chief element of its success. Rapid transit in New York is indebted to him for much of the development it has made. He has left upon the old world and the new an indetable impression of the breadth of his views and the sa-gacity of his undertakings. His name and his fame are part of the living records of our country. He endeared himself to those who were brought more immediately in contact with him by the gentleness and kindings of his character and the steadfast ness of his friendship. The growth and develop-ment of our city and of the country have been stim-ulated by the enterprises with which he has been connected, and in some of which his was the suggesting mind, during the past thirty years. This gifted and magnetic personality had the rare faculty of conceiving and carrying out projects which not only benefited his own period, but succeeding generations will enjoy their privileges and hold his achievements in grateful memory. Reseded, That these resolutions be entered at large upon the minutes of the Board, and a copy engrossed and sent to the family. GA 18,-On July 13, 1802, at Jersey City, N. J., Catherine Gab, aged 75 years.
